

Course Name: General Psychology II

Course Number: PSY* E112

Credits: 3

Catalog description: An introduction to the basic principles, findings and methods of study relating to human behavior. Topics include: Motivation and emotion, cognition, language, stress, health and well-being, personality theory, social psychology, and cultures and diversity in psychology. The course is designed to provide a foundation for more advanced study in psychology and related fields.

Prerequisite, Corequisite, or Parallel:

General Education Competencies Satisfied:

HCC General Education Requirement Designated Competency Attribute Code(s):

None

Additional CSCU General Education Requirements for CSCU Transfer Degree Programs:

None

Embedded Competency(ies):

None

Discipline-Specific Attribute Code(s):

BHEL Behavioral Science elective

Course objectives:

General Education Goals and Outcomes:

None

Course Specific Objectives:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of some of the more theoretical areas of psychological inquiry

2. Develop a greater awareness of the current research in the field of psychology
3. Demonstrate familiarity with therapeutic approaches to psychological problems
4. Develop greater understanding of human variation and diversity.
5. Describe various research strategies and the advantages and disadvantages of the uses of each as they apply to psychological investigation
6. Identify psychological principles that have been influential in one's life.

Course Content:

- 1) Sensation and Perception
- 2) Cognition
- 3) Language
- 4) Stress, Health and Well-being
- 5) Personality Theory
- 6) Abnormal Psychology
- 7) Social Psychology
- 8) Culture and Diversity in Psychology

Date Course Created:

Date of Last Revision: 03/2017