

Course Name: Correctional Counseling

Course Number: HSE* E206

Credits: 3

Catalog description:

A study of casework, counseling, philosophy and methods, and treatment techniques used in correctional settings

Prerequisite, Corequisite, or Parallel: PSY*111

General Education Competencies Satisfied:

HCC General Education Requirement Designated Competency Attribute Code(s):

None

Additional CSCU General Education Requirements for CSCU Transfer Degree Programs:

None

Embedded Competency(ies):

None

Discipline-Specific Attribute Code(s):

None

Course objectives:

General Education Goals and Outcomes:

None

Course Specific Objectives:

- Demonstrate knowledge of the basic correctional counseling theories and treatment methods;
2. Demonstrate knowledge and intervention skills in assessment of emotional disorders associated with individuals involved with the criminal justice system, including institutions, community and alternative incarceration programs;
 3. Demonstrate an understanding of effective service delivery models, systems and health care issues in services for individuals involved in the criminal justice and rehabilitation programs;
 4. Integrate knowledge of the history, political, cultural aspects of theory and practice regarding mental health and emotional disorders associated with individuals involved in correctional programs in institutions, community agencies and other rehabilitation programs for offenders;
 5. Demonstrate an understanding of the key theorists and their contributions to the study and practice of correctional counseling, including how theory and research is applied in this arena;
 6. Demonstrate the ability to reflect and comment upon ethical issues associated with correctional counseling theory, intervention, and strategies;
 7. Develop an understanding of developmental issues related to diversity within and cross cultures in the arena of correctional counseling;
 8. Demonstrate an understanding of how the application of correctional counseling theory and practice manifest in real-world institutions, school, and community settings.

Course Content:

1. Basic correctional counseling theories and treatment methods
2. Assessment of emotional disorders
3. Service delivery systems in the correctional setting
4. History, political, cultural aspects of counseling theory

5. Theory and research in the correctional setting
6. Ethical considerations
7. Diverse city and cross-cultural issues in the correctional setting
8. Applications of various theories in the correctional setting

Date Course Created:

Date of Last Revision: 03/03/2017