

Course Name: Music & Movement for Children

Course Number: ECE* 106

Credits: 3 credits

Catalog description: An investigation into the role of music and basic movement in early childhood development. Students will receive a basis in music skills. Included is preparation for assessing the health and physical well-being of the child. Students will demonstrate teaching techniques and prepare themselves for teaching with construction of teaching materials and the accumulation of resource materials.

Prerequisite, Co-requisite, or Parallel: None

HCC General Education Requirement Designated Competency Attribute Code(s):

None

Additional CSCU General Education Requirements for CSCU Transfer Degree Programs:

None

Embedded Competency(ies):

None

Discipline-Specific Attribute Code(s):

None

Course objectives:

Course Specific Objectives

1. Participate in the freedom and joy of the Music experience.
2. Plan activities and opportunities to stimulate creativity and bodily responses.
3. Construct a program for singing appropriate to educational and social needs of children. Including multi-cultural and special needs songs.
4. Play chords on one of a variety of instruments such as a piano, and an auto harp
5. Construct a rhythm instrument.
6. Create a music file. Including multi-cultural and special needs songs.
7. Memorize simple songs and finger plays.

Course Content:

1. Music Theory
2. Teachers Attitude And Ability
3. Developmental Overview: The role of music
4. Movement To Music: Stimulating creativity
5. Rhymes, Finger plays, and Chants

6. Musical Instruments: Piano/Autoharp
7. Music Theory: Reading the Music staff
8. Listening To The Music Of Others: Variety of Music Styles
9. Creating a music file

Date Course Created: Revised 3/10/05

Date of Last Revision: 03/16/2017