

Course Name: Police Management Seminar

Course Number: CJS* E251

Credits: 3

Catalog description:

A practical application of previously studied theories and methods in police management. Students will use group work, case studies and projects to theoretically interpret and apply data in management situations.

Prerequisite: CJS*E250 Police Management and Administration

General Education Competencies Satisfied:

Discipline-Specific Attribute Code(s):

BHEL                      Behavioral Science elective

Course objectives:

General Education Goals and Outcomes: none

Course Specific Objectives:

1. Develop knowledge of law enforcement, court and correctional components, including knowledge of how these components interact.
2. Develop knowledge of specific career area.
3. Develop ability to speak to groups.
4. Develop active listening skills.
5. Develop ability to make sound decisions in a limited time frame.
6. Develop understanding of special ethical issues in criminal justice professions.

Course Content:

This course will utilize a series of guest lecturers, each with a specific area of expertise. Topics covered will vary slightly from semester to semester. The following is a list of possible subjects to be covered:

Labor

Relations

Budgeting

Personnel practices

Technology

Hiring

Disciplinary practices

Department policy

Liability issues

Promotional

Procedures

Planning

Date Course Created:

Date of Last Revision: 05/05/2017